CONFESSED SLAYER WAIVES SANITY HEARING RIGHT Nations Join In Attempt To Keep Peace In Far East

CLASH REPORTS NOT CONFIRMED; TENSION EASES

Russia Standing Solidly On Kellogg Treaty Signing

TROOP MOVEMENTS MERELY PROTECTIVE

Chinese Word May Form Basis For Peace Or War

London July 20.—Great Britain formally joined the international movement to maintain the peace in the Far East, today.

Great Britain has informed the United States and France that the British have entirely associated themselves with the efforts those two powers are making by their friendly advice to effect a relaxation of the Russo-Chinese tension it was announced at the foreign office.

It is reliably reported from Nanking, seat of the Chinese Nationalist government, that the Chinese minister to England will soon leave Nanking for Moscow to discuss the Manchurian situation.

There is no official confirmation of press reports of clashes between Soviet and Chinese forces on the Siberian-Manchurian border although it is believed possible there may have been some skirmishes.

Chinese Reply Expected
No dispatches have as yet reached here describing the effect of Secretary Stimson's action in Moscow and Nanking, but it is felt in authoritative circles that a reply of some sort from China must be forthcoming shortly.

So far as Soviet Russia is concerned Secretary Stimson's pointed reminder that both nations involved in the war-like dispute are signatories to the Kellogg pact for renunciation of war as a national policy, is believed to have been answered yesterday evening before the American government's interventionist step was taken.

This answer was embodied in the statement of Jan Rudzutak, Soviet minister of transportation, to press representatives in Moscow. In his statement, Rudzutak gave assurance that Russia would not invade Chinese territory, preferring to suffer a loss of $10,000,000 annually involved by Chinese seizure of the Chinese eastern railway, than to violate the terms of the Kellogg pact.

Rudzutak was emphatic in his declaration that the Soviet government does not consider the Kellogg pact a mere "scrap of paper," and justified mobilization of Russian troops.

State Commission May Defer Case Which Affects County

Columbus, O., July 20.—The state utilities commission received a request from officials of the Mid-Western Motor Transit company for an indefinite postponement of the hearing the commission is scheduled to conduct relative to the application of the Pennsylvania General Transit company, of Philadelphia, for authority to operate a motor transportation service over Ohio highways.

The Mid-Western Motor Transit company wants the commission to delay this hearing until after the commission has passed upon the application of the Mid-Western company for permission to operate a motor transportation service between East Liverpool and Toledo.

The Mid-Western company declared there would be no need for granting the request of the Pennsylvania General Transit company if favorable action is taken on the application of the Mid-Western company.

TOLEDO JUDGE MAY LOSE POST FROM OLD CASE

Petty Offense While But A Youth Is Brought Against Jurist

Toledo, July 20.—A misdeed, which he allegedly committed as a youth, more than 14 years ago, today had risen up from out of his past to threaten to displace Judge Ira N. Cole from his bench in municipal court here.

Charges filed with the Toledo Bar association stated that the judge is holding office illegally.

According to the statement, Cole was a member of a party of three youths, who, in March, 1915, broke into a box car and stole a small quantity of clothes and shoes.

He was said to have been indicted by the Wood county grand jury and to have pleaded guilty to the charges.

It is said, however, that he was paroled to the superintendent of the reformatory and that he did not serve a day of his indeterminate sentence.

Since that time, Judge Cole has walked the straight and narrow path and has climbed up to an enviable position in his community. He is a graduate of law school and was recently elected to serve as municipal judge.

But because of the old offense, Assistant City Law Director Edward Lamb charges that he cannot hold office.

It is understood that friends of Judge Cole have amassed in a solid phalanx to fight the charges. A pardon for the old offense will be sought from Governor Myers V. Cooper, so that Judge Cole may hold office without any dispute surrounding his position.

Judge Cole said that he would not resign but would endeavor to clear himself of the old charge, which he had forgotten, he asserted.

"We're going to run and we are going to use the contribution system," McGinty said.

Although it was reported that Attorney General Gilbert Bettman would attempt to stop the running of the track, it was understood today that he will make no move unless he received specific instructions from Gov. Myers V. Cooper to enforce the ban against the "contribution system" of betting.

MURDERERS DIE IN RIVER WHILE FLEEING POSSE

One Swims Across Water To Safety; Fourth Missing

NEGROES KILL MAN WHO REFUSED MEAL

Slayers Lie In Ambush And Fire Upon Victim

Portsmouth, O., July 20.—Police were dragging the Ohio river today for the bodies of two negroes, who are believed to have drowned yesterday after they and two other negroes had allegedly shot and killed J. C. Silvey, 30, a railroad foreman, from ambush.

Silvey was shot down as he was walking along the tracks of the C. & O. railroad at Limeville, Ky., near here.

A few minutes before he ordered the negroes from the Cook's car in the construction camp at Limeville where they had demanded that the cook fry eggs for them.

The negroes laid in wait for Silvey, a native of Huntington, W. Va., beside a water tank and two of the negroes appeared to be dropped in his tracks. He died enroute to a hospital here.

A dragnet was immediately spread by Ohio and Kentucky police. A few hours later, Scioto county (Ohio) police found three negroes hiding in bushes along the Kentucky shore of the Ohio river.

The hunted men jumped into the river and started to swim for the Ohio shore. Police sent a hail of bullets after them and two of the negroes are reported to have been wounded and drowned.

The third colored man was successful in reaching the Ohio shore and he climbed from the river and disappeared into the shelter offered by a woods.

He had not been located early today. It is not known what happened to the fourth negro, but he is believed to have separated from his companions shortly after the shooting.

Police Searching For "Pastor" Who Passed Bad Checks

Cleveland, July 20.—A swindler, who posed as a pastor and ardent church-worker of several Ohio churches, was sought by police today following the disclosure that he has obtained nearly $15,000 in bad check manipulations since June 1.

George C. Southwell, secretary of the Dry Maintenance league, revealed the activities of the "clergyman-swindler" who operated his "game" here under the name of "Rev. James W. Shear."

Southwell said Rev. Mr. Shear visited his office early in June. The dry leader was out at the time. The swindler asked of office employees the name of Southwell's bank. Upon being told, he immediately went to the institution, represented himself of Southwell's and opened an account with a check for $5,000.

The check, along with a $25 check which the teller had obligingly cashed for the "clergyman" was returned as worthless.

NEW OHIO SPEED LAW GOES INTO EFFECT SUNDAY

15 Miles In Country; 35 In Residence Area, 25 In Cities

SIX OTHER STATES HAVE SAME RULING

Highway Traffic In Four States Allotted No Speed Limit

Columbus, O., July 20.—Ohio will step into line tomorrow, with six other states which permit automobiles to travel highways at a high rate of speed.

A new speed law, which raises the state limit to 45 miles per hour outside of cities, and which was enacted at the recent session of the 1929 general assembly, becomes effective at midnight Sunday.

Only six other states have similar laws. They are, Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Nevada, and North Carolina and South Carolina.

"Sky The Limit"
But that is not mentioning the states which have no speed restrictions at all—that is, on thoroughfares outside of municipalities. They are, Connecticut, Michigan and Montana. Indiana recently aspired to the latter class when the law-making bodies of that state passed a bill making the "sky the limit," as it would be said in poker parlance.

In six of the remaining 37 states, a motorist is allowed to send his car skimming 58.6 feet over the road every time the clock ticks off one of its lowly seconds. Talking in the vernacular which sounds sweetest to the motoring millions, that is a rate of 40 miles an hour.

These states are Georgia, Kansas, Maryland, Mississippi, New Jersey, and far-off Washington.

In the 31 states not indexed, motorcycle police, the denizens of the road, are allowed, and in many cases do "tag" autoists for speeding along at a speed greater than the specified 35 miles an hour.

Municipal Limits Vary
Municipal speed limits vary, ranging from 10 or 12 miles an hour to 25.

Besides liberalizing the speed limit on highways, the new Ohio state law, makes the concession of a traveling momentum of 35 miles an hour in residential districts in cities, and a speed limit of 25 miles an hour in congested city areas. This, according to solons who pleaded for the enactment of it, will alleviate traffic conditions in crowded downtown areas.

It was a game of "give and take" with the state legislators who passed the foregoing law. After putting their stamp of approval on the speed limit bill allowing motorists to go faster, they passed another piece of legislation which boosted the gas tax in Ohio from three to four cents a gallon.

NATIONAL BANKS GIVEN TAX RULE

Assessments On Shares of Stock Held Illegal By Commissioner

Columbus, July 20.—Taxes assessed against the shares of stock of national banks in Ohio under the present laws were held to be illegal and void in a report filed with Federal Judge Benson W. Hough by Master Commissioner William Ford.

Commissioner Ford, who heard the testimony in an Ohio case, filed two years ago by the Ohio National, the Commercial National and the Huntington National banks, recommended that Judge Hough issue a restraining order, enjoining the treasurer of Franklin county from collecting the 1926 and 1927 taxes said to be due on shares of stock of national banks in the county.

The decision, in a federal court, will have a statewide effect and will involve millions of dollars of taxable shares of stock.

RUMORS STATE ALIENISTS WILL HOLD MAN SANE

These Reports Seen As Reason For Action of Attorneys

TRIAL DAY SET ON WEDNESDAY

Jurors Have Been Notified To Appear; Victim Was Co-ed

Columbus, July 20.—Attorneys for Dr. James Howard Snook, confessed slayer of Miss Theora Hix will waive the man's constitutional right for a sanity hearing and the first-degree murder trial of the admitted co-ed killer will start in criminal court here Wednesday morning.

Judge Henry L. Scarlett, presiding judge of criminal court, so informed International News Service today.

Scarlett said he had been notified by E. O. Ricketts, a defense attorney that Dr. Snook will waive his right for a sanity hearing.

"The murder trial will begin Wednesday morning," Judge Scarlett continued, "as I have already notified Sheriff Harry T. Paul to notify the prospective jurors for the murder trial to appear at that time."

The jurist declared that attorneys for the confessed killer of his "lovelorn" sweetheart, would have to appear in his court Monday morning and withdraw the motion they have already filed, which requested a hearing for the man to determine whether or not Dr. Snook was insane at the time he brutally slew Miss Hix, a medical student at the Ohio State university.

Rumor Sanity Verdict
The defense's step, in abandoning the sanity hearing, is believed to have been influenced by reports that three court alienists had reached a verdict that Dr. Snook was sane on the night of June 13 when he beat Miss Hix's skull 17 times with a hammer and slit her jugular vein, shoulder and abdomen with a pocket knife.

Three court alienists, Dr. Guy H. Williams, of the Cleveland State hospital; Dr. Wm. H. Vorbau of the Lima State hospital and Dr. Arthur G. Hyde, of the Massillon State hospital, examined the man Thursday afternoon.

It had been learned from reliable sources that Dr. report found Dr. Snook sane at the time of the hearing, though the official findings have not as yet been disclosed.

The defense also had two alienists employed and the state, the day after Dr. Snook confessed to the crime, engaged three local criminal doctors.

The confessed slayer, who at one time maintained a one room apartment for Miss Hix and himself where they were known as Mr. and Mrs. James Howard, has been examined by eight alienists.

DOLLAR AND A HALF WHEAT

The law of psychology still works. This is proven by the fact that wheat in the United States has touched $1.50 a bushel, with everything indicating even a higher price. The answer is simple. Without an increased demand for wheat, either export or domestic, the price suddenly shoots skyward to a price unheard of since the war. The psychological fact that the Farm Board is functioning, with billions of dollars of Uncle Sam's money at its command, has stabilized the market and created the current fluctuation.

And after all the Farm Board's greatest function will be that of stabilization. That is all President Hoover ever claimed it would do. And where there is a stable market there one will find higher prices for the commodity, whether it be grain or meat, mutton or fruit.

One other reason which might be advanced for the sudden killing of wheat prices is the fact that the Canadian crop is materially deteriorated, due to several reasons, and the competition ordinarily expected from this source has thus been removed.

One lesson the wheat raiser—or any other farmer, for that matter—can learn from the quick responding of the price of wheat to the Farm Board's functioning, is that it will be possible to absolutely corner the grain market whenever they get ready to do so. With a stable market and prices bringing a return on the investment, the grain grower can store his commodity until such a time as he desires to sell, and force the price he wishes. And this is made possible by the fact that the regulatory machinery of the Farm Board is set up for the purpose of bringing about that stabilization which heretofore has not existed.

Dollar and a half wheat is remarkable wheat, and one can picture the wheat growers smiling contentedly to themselves. But it's all psychological. The Farm Board has hardly more than organized, yet its influence is immediately felt the breadth of the country.

There is another angle to the situation, too. When the grain market is high and the grain grower is satisfied, prosperity is reflected in all other lines. And with wheat selling at a dollar and a half there is no cause for the Republican party to feel anything but jubilation.

But there is a stopping point for the price of wheat, and this point should not be overstepped. Dollar and a half wheat may be that point, or it may be $2 wheat, for all we know. But when the equitable and fair and reasonable price for wheat is reached, then a halt should be called, either through the Farm Board or the Sherman Anti-Trust act.

Anything which sends prices beyond the fair and reasonable point immediately is felt by the rank and file of the public—the bread winners and their families. Flour prices are apt to jump, and when they go up, so does the price of bread, and an increase in the price of flour or bread is not to be desired or condoned.

The Farm Board must watch its step that it does not permit an overstepping of the equitable mark for the price of any grain or other commodity the farmer produces.

What Others Say

NEW INDUSTRIES

One of the significant phases of the vitality of American business is the rapid growth of wholly new lines of production. As the methods of mass production, both in industry and on the farm, have released vast numbers of persons, due to the high efficiency of machine production, the surplus of labor thus created has gone into service industries or the production of new types of commodities.

The motion-picture industry, for example, has come to be a giant among our businesses, employing thousands of workers in one capacity or another. Aviation, now firmly established on a sound commercial basis, is recruiting large numbers of workers. Service to automobile owners requires a growing army of employees. A study of the figures for recent years shows clearly that these newer industries have grown just as men and women have been released from the production of basic commodities which can now be turned out with less labor and more capital investment in machinery.

The net result of this gradual shift is a greater earning power for the individuals and a far greater buying power. More goods and services are available for consumption at the same cost in human effort. In this respect American business is unique and has a vitality unmatched in other nations of the globe. The secret lies in an unlimited demand for goods of various kinds and a flexible people who can adapt themselves to various sorts of work depending on the need which may exist for their services. The benefits of this condition rebound to all persons, and should give them cause for satisfaction and pride.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Stars Say

For Sunday, July 21

Sunday's horoscope is a forecast of rather conflicting conditions, while there is promise of favors, honors, promotion, with substantial recognition for fidelity and service, yet there are frictions, inharmonies and personal unhappiness. Avoid extravagance and quarrels.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of advancement or substantial returns for labor and employment, yet there may be contention, inharmonies and losses in personal friction and unhappiness. Every real prayer is answered.—William Frederic Keeler.

For Monday, July 22

Monday's astrological forecast is for important honors, growth of substance and happy fulfillments of cherished hopes and wishes. These may involve a change of environment, position or call for travel, but all of an unforeseen or abrupt nature. All should flourish despite some small annoyances or delays. Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a flourishing and happy year, attended by change, removal or travel. But honors, increase of money, and growth of business are promised, albeit there may be small annoyances or delays. A child born on this day may be clever, original, ambitious and should attain success and prosperity as well as place and popularity in life.

New honors, like our strange garments, cleave not their mold but with the aid of use.—Shakespeare.

CONTENTED MIND A FACTOR IN HEALTH

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

Cheerfulness is a cause and an effect. It promotes good digestion, ease of labor and contentment of mind. It is a habit which should be cultivated.

Success in business, a gratified appetite and freedom from pain are effected by cheerfulness and joy. There can be no doubt that happiness and contentment of mind are real factors in life. Some folks are cranky and cranky on Blue Monday. They are formed the habit of "blowing off steam" on Monday. They clean house with their tempers on Monday.

This is a bad habit. It is an unnecessary habit. It is an inexcusable habit. I look with pity upon a man who has everybody in a ferment of misery, because he chooses to vent his feelings on his associates. A business man who grows at his clerks all through the first half of the day is equalled in manners only by the clerk who "snaps the head off" the customer.

Why give way to such emotions? It shows a little character as to yield to the temptation to steal, or to commit some other crime of impulse. I confess I feel more or less hypocritical in preaching a doctrine which I do not practice fully. At least, however, I can admit that I know better and that I am ashamed after I have yielded to the bad habit of depression, crustiness, or open unkindness of spirit and action.

Such habits undermine the health. They produce indigestion, headache, eyestrain, temporary blind spots and all sorts of nervous symptoms.

If you have no regard for the feelings of your neighbors, you should cultivate the habit of cheerfulness. That habit, if studiously practiced, will add to your health, to your efficiency, and to your length of life.

Fear of disaster, fear of the poorhouse, fear of failure—every sort of fear is fatal to cheerfulness. You must have faith in God, in your fellow men and in yourself, or else you will have gloom of spirit, with all its evil effects upon your soul and mind and body.

Every doctor will tell you that a contented mind is better than great riches. The Psalmist sang it; the doctors preach it; now go thou and practice it! When you have converted your meanness of soul into cheerfulness of spirit, you will have better health and more society as you have never served it before.

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of July 29, 1909)

Houston, Texas—A wall of water like a tidal wave swept the town of Galveston. Water in the streets was seven feet deep. Railroad communications were destroyed.

The business men of the city favored a street fair this year.

The test oil well drilled on the Falcon farm, north of Hanoverton, came in a disaster.

Ten women declared to be white slaves are now locked up in Youngstown.

The division of the Pennsylvania lines west between Crestline and Alliance is to be equipped entirely with one-minute automatic block signals. Work on the improvement has been begun.

E. Greenberger and H. E. Eakin returned Tuesday from Cambridge Springs, Pa., where they have been spending a two weeks vacation.

The contract for paving 10 city streets of Massillon has been awarded.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Esther E. Fawcett, Ellsworth rd., and E. Dean Stanton, Westwood, Pa., which will be an event of Wednesday morning, July 28. The wedding will be at the Wilbur Friends meetinghouse.

The younger set of the Salem Country club have arranged for the first dance to be given at the club grounds, Gilson's six piece orchestra will play.

Misses Helen and Clara Belle McNab, Youngstown, nieces of J. B. McNab, this city, had a narrow escape from injury Tuesday morning when the horses they were driving shed and started to run away.

George Fulton, Salem young man, has been taken to Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he will spend several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Farmers about Orangeville are complaining about the scarcity of help. As high as $30 a month and board is offered and still the list of available men is small.

AN EASY WAY TO PAY TAXES

It will be easy to pay taxes in December if you start now by depositing a certain amount on a savings account each pay day for that purpose.

If you receive your pay twice a month, divide the amount of taxes by twelve, and make a deposit of that amount each pay day between now and then.

This plan will also help to solve many other financial problems, or to build up a substantial savings-investment account paying—

A Mineral Water Treatment

For the greater convenience of home use, Crazy Water is prepared in the crystallized form. Crazy Crystals are made from the famous Crazy Mineral Water through an process of evaporation—nothing is added. Please remember that a one-pound box of Crazy Crystals represents 15 gallons of Crazy Water, a natural laxative Mineral Water, and in taking the Crystals, a Mineral Water should be made as nearly like the natural water as possible.

Keep a box of Crazy Crystals in your bath room and upon arising, drink a glass of Mineral Water by adding one-half to one teaspoonful of Crystals to a glass of water. Do this every morning. Proper diet regulation should be used. Drink water freely between meals and take plenty of exercise. For regular use, add one ounce of Crystals to a gallon of water and drink eight to twelve glasses per day, but do not drink Mineral Water with or just after meals.

It is a known fact that when these Crystals are used with discrimination according to individual requirements, the results will equal those obtained in the various diseases in which the Natural Crazy Mineral Waters have long been successfully employed.

More Than Doubled

THIS question was asked one of our officers recently: "If I had put into the bank $1,000.00 in 1910, and neither added to it nor withdrew from it, how much would I have in the bank in this year of 1929?"

When the answer showed the man that his money would have more than doubled, he was dumbfounded, and then he started a savings account.

Drive this Car

PUT IT TO THESE ELEVEN TESTS

The only true test of performance is personal experience. Take a trial drive in an Oldsmobile and find out for yourself, not only what it does, but how it does it. Match it against other cars and make comparisons. Give it these eleven tests . . . or any others . . . and check results by any standard of performance you care to set.

1. TEST EASE OF CONTROL

When you relax in the driver's seat, notice its comfort—the convenient arrangement of controls and dash instruments. Try the new Fisher adjustable front seat. Oldsmobile's adjustable steering wheel adds to your comfort. Step on the starter and note its prompt engagement. Test the easy action of the clutch—the silent, easily meshed gear-shift.

2. TEST GETAWAY

Observe how easily and smoothly Oldsmobile gets away from the curb—how easy it is to steer. Pull up to a stoplight. Then flash ahead when the signal says "Go." Measure Oldsmobile's swift, stageless pick-up in all gears.

3. TEST HANDLING EASE

Drive through thickest traffic. Learn how Oldsmobile's instant response to accelerator, brakes, and steering wheel simplifies city driving. At any speed, in traffic or on the road, Oldsmobile is easy to handle and restful to drive.

4. TEST SMOOTHNESS

Drive Oldsmobile out on the open road. Cover the face of the speedometer with glove or handkerchief . . . take your accustomed touring pace . . . then note the speedometer reading. You will be astonished to find how fast you are traveling.

5. TEST RIDING COMFORT

Oldsmobile seats are wide and deep-cushioned. Interiors are roomy and ## restful. Four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers function in harmony with Oldsmobile's special alloy-steel springs to smooth out all road irregularities. Drive this finer Oldsmobile over choppy pavements, over ruts and bumps. Whether you take them at high speeds or slow, you'll find that all roads ride comfortably in an Oldsmobile.

6. TEST ACCELERATION IN HIGH GEAR

When you pass other cars on the road, mark Oldsmobile's quick response to the throttle in all speed ranges—the smooth, effortless surge of power that enables you to sweep into the lead easily and surely.

7. TEST SPEED

Seek a straight, level stretch of highway and give Oldsmobile its head. You'll thrill to speeds far higher than the average motorist ever uses. Yet you'll feel secure, perfectly relaxed—for Oldsmobile's speed is as restful as it is exhilarating.

8. TEST HILL-CLIMBING ABILITY

Send Oldsmobile up the longest, steepest hill you know. Start at the bottom at various speeds. You'll find Oldsmobile's power reserve in Oldsmobile's big 62-horsepower engine gives it wonderful hill-climbing ability. If it's power you want, you can't match this Oldsmobile at its new lower price.

9. TEST ROADABILITY

One of the greatest joys in driving this finer Oldsmobile results from its splendid roadability. A low center of gravity, balanced weight, and four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers all are contributing factors in Oldsmobile's ability to hug the road at any speed.

10. TEST THE BRAKES

Check Oldsmobile's braking system for ability. Oldsmobile's four-wheel safety brakes not only are exceptionally efficient, but are smooth, quiet, and easy to operate as well.

11. TEST PARKING EASE

Deliberately select a small space at the curb and park this Oldsmobile. Fingertip steering and a short turning radius make it easy to slip into small parking places. The easy clutch, brake, and gear-shift action allows you to take full advantage of every inch of space.

These eleven tests will give you a comprehensive idea of all phases of Oldsmobile performance. They also afford an excellent basis of comparison with other cars. Thousands of motorists who have given Oldsmobile these and other tests have made it clear of their choice. Come, drive this car and judge it, at its new lower price, by your own standards of performance and value.

BACTERIAL WILT PREVENTION BY BEETLE CONTROL

Disease-Causing Bacillus Carried From Plants
By Insects

Bacterial wilt of cucumber and other plants may be largely prevented by controlling the striped cucumber beetle which carries the disease-causing bacillus from diseased plants to healthy ones as they feed on the plants according to J. D. Wilson, assistant in plant pathology at the Ohio experiment station. The beetle not only eats holes in the leaves soon after the plants appear above the ground but it also carries the wilt disease. Control of the insect as soon as it appears, therefore will go a long way toward preventing the disease. The use of lime on the small plants has a stunting effect and for this reason a dust made up of 20 parts of gypsum, land plaster, well-sifted lime and one part of calcium arsenate is recommended for the first and second applications. The first application should be made just after the plants are well out of the ground and the other two at weekly intervals.

Spray Weekly
After the plants begin to vine one may either dust or spray at weekly intervals, depending on the equipment available. A mixture made up of 20 parts of monohydrated copper sulphate, 70 parts of fresh hydrated lime and 10 parts of powdered lead arsenate is most commonly used for dusting. It should be applied in late evening or early morning when the plants are damp and the wind is low.

A 4-50 bordeaux spray to which one and one-half pounds of arsenate of lead have been added for each 50 gallons may be used on cucumbers instead of the dust and will usually give better results. This should be reduced to a 3-4-50 bordeaux with the lead reduced to one pound for muskmelons, as they are more susceptible to spray injury than cucumbers.

Crazed By Heat, Man Runs Amuck

Yonkers, N. Y., July 20. — Crazed by the heat, his attorney explains, Maduras, 45, ran amuck at the Thobets Brook Park Clubhouse here during the recent heat wave and after attempting to extract a dime from a concessionaire, kicked a policeman, knocked him down a flight of stairs and then severely bit the officer.

Posing as a city inspector Maduras told the proprietor of the restaurant concession at the amusement park that he "didn't like the odor" around the icebox. His offer to "fix it up" was followed by his ejection. One way to the street he met Police Patrolman Thomas Maduron whom he kicked and threw down six steps to the said landing. When Maduron grappled with Maduras the latter is alleged to have stamped the officer's hand between his teeth biting him badly at the base of the right forefinger.

Haled into police court, the attorney for the accused man explained that Maduras was a "steady, sober and industrious man." His career as a "cop-fighter" was ascribed to the continued heat.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, July 20.—Diamonds have come into their own again after a brief period of omission when pearls and emeralds had their fling. But the ones that are seen these days are not always the pure, regularly-cut diamonds of yore. There are transparent, semi-transparent, translucent, milky, cloudy, stormy, murky and midnight ones. There are enormous square-cut diamonds, such as one which forms the center of a beautiful V-shaped necklace worked out in a chain of the rose-cut and new baguette diamonds. It is set in two rows of rose diamonds.

French jewelers are genius at transforming diamonds to run the whole gamut of brilliance. They dim them to a glow-worm's glimmer and make them sparkle like frost in the moonlight, adapting them to the jewels they must frame, mount for rubies, soft for sapphires and fiery for emeralds.

Sports jewelry for summer comes of wood, bone or metal.

One jeweler makes a sports-necklace of perfectly flat, barbaric gold loops which weigh no more than a feather, each one intersected by a flat little silver bar which stiffens the chain so that it forms a rigidly straight line about the neck.

Very smart are highly-polished coral beads, egg-shaped and barrel ones, strung on a brown cord with a knot between each one and bright and upright beads flanking the barrel one. A necklace and bracelet of them are just the thing for a "band" chattering or linen sport frock.

Study This Picture of the Hardy Family Featured in Chautauqua Play, "Skidding"

THE HARDY FAMILY "WATCHES THE BIRDIE"

The scene of the comedy "Skidding" announced for Chautauqua's fifth night, is laid in the living room of the home of Judge and Mrs. James A. Hardy in an Idaho town. Within the three acts of the play there is much to admire. This is evidenced by the fact that it has been running continuously in New York City, first at the Bijou Theater and later at the Bayes Theater, since May, 1928.

It is a diverting comedy-drama of love and politics. For two hours the audience lives with the cast of the play and is an eye-witness of their family life which at times is none too comely, but at all times delightfully humorous.

The Hardys are a sturdy clan of fairly prosperous westerners. At their head is Judge Hardy, a prominent figure in local politics, and a none too optimistic candidate for re-election. His youngest daughter returns from college, finds her dad in sore straits, rolls up her sleeves and wades into the campaign. Many trials and tribulations develop, but the usual happy ending is brought about.

STRANGE LAWS GOVERN PEOPLE

Mutual Consent Results
In Divorce For New Zealanders

Los Angeles, July 20.—S. S. Hahn, Los Angeles attorney, saw cannibals, man-eating sharks and tigers, coral reefs, bananas, coconuts and white men going mad from native gin, but the two things that impressed him most during a three months' voyage through the South Seas, which ended here today, he confessed, were:

1. A New Zealand law which permits husband and wife to get a divorce by mutual consent when they discover they no longer care to live together.

2. The fact that intoxication or interperence do not constitute grounds for divorce in Australia.

Hahn declared he feels that California should have a similar divorce law.

Hahn said he attended several hearings of the investigation of the flight of the Southern Cross across Australia in which Captain Kingsford Smith was forced down on mud flats in the ship and was marooned with several companions for several weeks, the party being forced to eat mud snails to sustain life until rescuers arrived.

"I am convinced reports that Captain Smith intentionally landed his plane on the mud flats, were hearsay and wild rumors," Hahn said.

"But that's the life of a hero. First, he was a popular idol when he made his astounding flight in the Southern Cross from San Francisco to Australia. Now, he's the butt of ridicule and investigation because of rumors."

Author Finds Fishing In St. Lawrence Bad

Cape Vincent, July 20. — Harold MacGrath, noted novelist, vacationing here, complains that fishing in the St. Lawrence river has gone to pot.

"Nothing like the old days" was the way MacGrath put it after the opening day of the season had netted him only three bass and a few perch. The passing of the sailboat and the advent of big steamers that ply the St. Lawrence was blamed by the novelist for the lean days which fishing has fallen into here.

SEEKING-LEASE.

The marriage of Miss Flora Seekins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Seekins, Salem, and Rev. Charles E. Lease, of Oconto, Wis., was a recent event at the First Methodist church in Oconto, of which Rev. Lease is pastor.

Dr. Richard Evans, of Appleton, Wis., performed the service. The church was resplendent in color and beauty. All about the sacred edifice were candelabra and a great cluster of candelabra were grouped about the semi-circular chancel, which was banked with ferns and garden flowers. Two vases of briar cliff roses and a magnificent candelabra were placed on the altar.

The entire service was performed by the light of 120 long white taper candles, and by the lighted cross which hung above the altar.

The wedding march was played by Robert W. Hays, of Green Bay, Wis., and Edna Nichols sang three selections during the service.

The bride wore a lovely princess gown of white satin and embroidered white tulle veil fashioned into a turban effect and caught with white roses. She carried an arm bouquet of butterfly roses, swansons and white sweet peas tied with white nautica.

Miss Ruby Fay Beeghly, the bridesmaid, was attired in a pretty frock of pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of roses, blue jasper and annual gypsophylla tied with pink ribbon. Mr. Lease was unattended.

After the service there was a reception, and this was in charge of the official boards of the Oconto and Brookside churches.

The young people took a honeymoon trip to Washington Island. They will make their home in Oconto.

"HEX" MURDER STIRS MACHINE

Woman Slain Because Couple Feared Her Witchcraft

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 20.—Professing a horror of witchcraft, Eugene Burgess, 53, and his wife Pearl, in custody for the "hex" hammer murder of Mrs. Ella L. Fairchild, 76, today clung to their ingenious explanation that they were compelled to kill the aged widow "because she was putting a spell on all of us with her evil eye."

Burgess admitted according to statements authorities said were obtained from him and his wife, that he beat Mrs. Fairchild on the head with a hammer as she sat at the table after having had supper with them.

"Yes, I killed her," Burgess said calmly to Chief of Police Carney. "It had to be done. She could kill anyone with a look. She could give you any kind of disease with her evil eye. Why, she has killed more than a hundred people, including her husband."

Mrs. Burgess declared that Mrs. Fairchild was "beginning to kill Mr. Burgess."

"She was working on him," explained the mate. "She was starting to make his heart beat fast."

"He had to kill her or be killed. She threatened to kill us all if we didn't let her come and live with us."

After he knocked her unconscious with a hammer blow, dealt when he crept up behind her as she sat at the dinner table, Burgess, according to his story, dragged the widow into the parlor and "finished" her with the hammer and a piece of lead pipe.

Mrs. Fairchild, a widow for more than 20 years, was a resident of an institution for the aged near the Burgess home. She was a frequent visitor at the Burgess home, but never was welcomed, neighbors said.

Paris, July 18.—Seashore chic spells trousers this summer, judging from the numerous pairs of them now being seen at French beaches such as Biarritz and Deauville.

They form pyjama ensembles which make a novel note in fashionable beach apparel this year. A dressmaker here is making unusual trousers of red Scotch plaid wool, lined in brightest tones of red, blue and green, worn with a white shantung blouse which is cut with the neckline of an evening gown and has straps over the shoulders of the Scotch plaid. Over this comes a three-quarter length coat that is split open from the round yoke at the neck and the front. The round yoke ends in ties which attach the sleeveless wrap at the back of the neck.

Another makes white flannel trousers very wide at the bottom to wear with a sweater in blue and white striped jersey and a fitted sleeveless jacket of bright red. The jersey scarf is red, white and blue.

Other interesting trousers at the moment come in black and white checks worn with a bright red flannel cashmere tied in basque fashion with a little jacket in various shades.

Vivid blue is used for trousers with accordion pleated godets at the sides of the legs to increase their width. They button on to the blue belt placed around a high waistline, and with them is combined a sleeveless blouse of white crepe de chine draped in front like a handkerchief, tied about the neck. This is a printed coat made of blue and white silk and also a printed skirt to replace the trousers if one wishes.

Some of the designers are favoring these beach skirts, very often made of two very large squares of printed cotton attached at the waist by a narrow band that ties at the back.

Unique Table

Detroit, July 20.—A table constructed of 10,000 small pieces of wood gathered from all parts of the world was displayed here during the recent convention of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

The unique table was the work of George L. Hathaway of Dayton, O., who constructed it during his convalescence following the war. The table is known as the "American Good Will Table."

It is an outward call to an inward sense of need that feels to respond, but petty enemies distract and destroy, and make men passive, religiously. There is a kind of joy which is on the surface of life, but it is not Christian joy. The children of God rejoice in that God is their Father and Jesus Christ their Saviour and Friend. The troubles of life cannot destroy their joy because it is founded upon a rock. Doubts cannot dispel their gladness into heaviness for the doubts are blown away by the divine promises. At times, indeed, when the burden is heavy we are tempted to sigh, and then we must follow the Master's gracious invitation and come to him, and at the sound of His voice there is a joy which makes the yoke easy and the burden light. As sincere Christians we are to rejoice evermore, and so prove ourselves grateful and trustful. God loves me—that fact should make me glad.

PROGRESS SHOWN IN STATE WORK

Detours In Ohio Rapidly
Decreasing; Eliminate 27 Last Week

Progress in completion of construction work throughout the state of Ohio in improvement of highways, is shown in this week's bulletin of the state highway department.

Only eight detours were added in the entire state, while 27 were eliminated, the bulletin states. Where there were more than 250 detours in the state earlier in the summer, there are now only about 154.

Three detours are still in effect in Columbiana county. These are: 154—Lancaster-East Palestine road under construction from Lancaster to Neely. Length of detour, one mile.

164—Youngstown-Lancaster road under construction from Lancaster to Neely. Length of detour, eight miles.

170—East Liverpool-East Palestine rd. Road under construction between points four miles and one mile north of East Liverpool. Length of detour 15 miles—five fair, one good; bad in wet weather.

Traffic is maintained on the Salem-Warren rd. Route 45, where the highway is being improved from Leesworth to the Columbiana county line. This is in Mahoning county. The Columbiana-Canfield road, Route 46, has a detour of nine miles. The road work in progress between one and four miles south of Canfield.

OUR READERS

ATTACKS ATTITUDE

Letonia, O., July 19, 1929

I wish to point out here that despite the suave, friendly talk given by Mr. Van Fossan, the chairman at the meeting held in Washington school, Friday, July 12, he misrepresented, in his closing remarks, the spirit of the people present and acted in a most atrocious fashion.

As knowing Mr. Van Fossan, it came as a surprise that at the height of the meeting when the people present, those vitally concerned with this question of consolidation, began to ask the very points of information he ostensibly was so interested in answering that he tried to close the meeting.

Spirit ran so high, however, and he was forced to continue until the residents of the various districts continued to ask how their particular problem would be solved.

No solution was offered by the chairman of the county board, Mr. Van Fossan continually suggested a happy future when all problems would be straightened out. He did not answer these very pertinent questions then, nor could he answer them at the meeting called upon. Yet he had the audacity to end the meeting with the remark that he could see the expressions from the floor that we were all in favor of the plan to consolidate. Surely Mr. Van Fossan is the only one who could see that—and one is prone to wonder what it is that makes Mr. Van Fossan see that when not one of the problems put before him was adequately answered.

What made him close the meeting suddenly when these "dear friends," whom he addressed so kindly, still had things to say. Didn't the county board call the meeting for the very purpose of talking things over?

If Mr. Van Fossan was so sure that the sentiment was in favor of consolidation, why did he not put it to a vote? Didn't he say in his talk that the wish of the people was sovereign? Why didn't he let them tell him in the only logical manner that they could at the meeting what it was they wanted?

Mr. Van Fossan in his hurry to get away when he realized that the sentiment of the meeting was against him, failed to give me an answer after I had repeatedly asked for it. This of course, was after I had once expressed my sentiments on the subject in no uncertain terms. However what Mr. Van Fossan would not let me do at the meeting, I can still do through the press.

I desired to make two motions: One to the effect that this project for consolidation of the schools of Salem township with Letonia, be postponed until such a time as the county board come to the people involved with definite plans for improved roads means of transporting the children and means of caring for them in Letonia.

The second motion was to have been a vigorous protest against the atrocious action of J. L. Gray, district superintendent in attempting to turn away from the very doors of the county board meetings on July 6 the carriers of the petitions against consolidation, by telling them it was too late. Mr. Gray, who was in office through the connivance of the very people he was turning away, that he was being paid to serve them not to betray them.

And again let me ask: Why must I approve a pig in a poke? Respectfully Yours, BERTHA K. MARSHALL.

Farm Board Urged
To Aid Planters

Washington, July 20.—The federal farm board was urged by Senator Tom Connally (D) of Texas to set up a national statistical bureau to keep track of planters keep in touch with markets and prices. The cotton industry is in urgent need of such consideration by the board.

Mr. Williams, speaking for the board, assured Connally the board would turn its attention to relieving the cotton farmer at the earliest opportunity.

Of Tourist Family

Salida, Colo., July 20.—Search was being made today for the bodies of Charles Fugate, his wife Mary, and their 2-year-old child, Edna, after they were believed to have been drowned in a sudden flood on a highway near here.

The family of three, tourists from Pawhuska, Okla., had taken refuge from a rain and hail storm in a railroad underpass nine miles from here, a four foot wall of water plunged upon them without warning.

Lawrence Fugate, a brother of Charles, escaped without injury.

Tommy Loughran Announces Plan To Resign Light-Heavy Title

Doctors Warn Champ Health Impaired By Making Weight Limit

Renounces Right To Championship Before State Fight Commission Next Week; Plans to Ask For Recognition As Tunney Successor

New York, July 20.—"I've had enough. The doctors have warned me that if I make 175 pounds again, my kidneys will collapse from the drying out process. That's enough for me. I'm a heavyweight from now on."

Tommy Loughran, who successfully defended his title against James J. Braddock Thursday night, thus renounced his right to the light-heavyweight championship. He said he would go before the New York Boxing Commission in a week or so formally relinquish his title and request recognition as one of the leading heavy-weight contenders.

Bitter Battle On In Fistic

Madison Square Garden In Critical War With N. Y. Commission

By DAVID J. WALSH
New York, July 20.—Police, represented by the State Athletic commission, and Wall Street, with its investment in the multi-million dollar corporation at Madison Square Garden, were embroiled today in what promised to be the bitterest war the sport of boxing has known, a war, they say, that only can end with one or the other in absolute and lasting command.

The real cause is the Garden corporation's refusal that it will take the Sharkey-Schmeling fight to another city, Chicago, Detroit, or elsewhere, in defiance of the commission's official pleasure, but actually it represents the first definite outbreak in a long-smoldering feud between the powers of boxing, dating back to the Rickard regime.

Like the Archduke and Duchess at Sarajevo, the two fighters now are mere pawns in the game.

James A. Farley, chairman of the commission, refused to comment on the garden's official declaration for an out-of-town site for the fight but his promise of drastic action at next Tuesday's meeting was made in a way that indicated anything up to and including an earthquake.

If Mr. Farley can be said to represent the sentiment of the commission, then the commission undoubtedly is irked no end.

"A move like that ought to get us somewhere, for I'll fight anybody anywhere, while most of the contenders won't."

Blew Up In 12th
Loughran said he reached his decision to retire from the light-heavyweight championship only after last night's fight was well under way. Although no one was conscious of the fact, he said he "blew up" in the 12th round and could hardly flounder on to the finish.

He told a story of Spartan self-denial in describing the ordeal whereby he was able to weigh 174 pounds at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and thus save the title from forfeiture on the scales. "I can't understand how I fought so well," the retiring champion said. "I had to dry out for 24 hours, wasn't allowed to eat or drink anything before the weighing in and spent an hour and a quarter in a Turkish bath before going on the scales. Somehow I picked up some reserve strength I didn't know I had and I went in there to fight better than I ever did. But with the fight won, everything left me in the 12th round, and I had to tin-can my way in."

Doctors Issue Warning
"The doctors warned me a year ago that I'd either have to give up the title or my health. It isn't hard to make a decision on a thing like that particularly when the title no longer is of value. I've given it all I had and got all I can out of it, so am leaving it to my successor."

Babe Ruth Out Of Game

Cleveland, July 20.—Babe Ruth, famous home run slugger, who pulled a muscle in his leg during a game at Detroit last Wednesday, will be out of the New York lineup for the remainder of the Yankee-Indian series, and perhaps indefinitely longer, Miller Huggins, Yankee pilot, revealed today.

The Babe was forced to retire from yesterday's game between the Yankees and Indians when for the second time this week, he pulled his left leg muscle causing him to limp perceptibly.

Although Huggins expressed concern over the Babe's condition, he refused to predict that his ace home run hitter was at the end of his rope as far as his playing career was concerned.

"Ruth's muscles naturally do not respond to treatment as quickly now as they did when he was younger," Huggins said. "I won't make any predictions, however, except that he will not play during the remainder of our series here."

"It is never safe to predict about Ruth anyway," Huggins added with dry humor. "You know he has a habit of crossing up the best of predictions, so it is better to speak with reservations."

This last injury hit the Babe just as he was beginning to hit his home run stride again to pull out of the setback he received when he was out of the Yankee lineup for some time because of illness earlier in the year.

Pitcher George Earnshaw Big Factor In Success Of "A's"
New York, July 20.—Pitcher George Earnshaw's rise to stardom is one of the main reasons why the Athletics, with a nine-game lead over the Yankees, have a strangle hold on the American league pennant today.

The big right-hander was the only member of Connie Mack's staff who failed to average better than .500 last year, when he won only seven games and lost the same number. This season he already has won 13 games, a record unsurpassed by any other hurler in the league except Lefty Grove, his teammate, and also is second only to Grove in the strike-out totals.

Yesterday the former Baltimore Oriole held the heavy-hitting Detroit club to five hits, four of which were made by Marty McManus. The Macks combed Owen Carroll for nine blows and won 4 to 2.

After subduing Cleveland, 7 to 2, with Tom Zachary on the mound, the Yanks were beaten by the youthful Wes Ferrell in the nightcap, 11 to 3, and lost half a game in the race. After the Indians knocked Pipiras out of the box in the night-

St. Louis—The local union bartenders, who were made jobless by the enactment of the Jones dry law, are planning the establishment of a chain of small lunchrooms near industries that employ union labor, and also a culinary school for bartenders who are more adept at handling foam-topped steins than they are a frying pan, it was learned.

Bill Sanders Hurls Masons To 10-1 Decision Over China Nine

Crack Masonic Hurler Sets China Combine Back In One-Sided Affair; Colonial Billiards Go Into First Place In League

The Masons relegated the Salem China ballsters back into second place in the city baseball circuit, and automatically boosted the Colonial Billiards back to the top berth, when they handed the Potters their worst trouncing of the season, by a 10 to 1 score, at Centennial field, last night.

With Bill Sanders in rare form, the Masons were almost unbeatable, the China crew gathering only one safe hit off his delivery. This was a fluke triple by Gefeller, who later scored on a wild throw by Pett.

Sanders, Chief Drakulich hurled nice baseball but was given terrible support by his teammates, who started every rally the Masonic combine had with errors.

Joe Reese smacked a three-base hit into left center for the longest hit of the game. Drakulich fanned ten batters but hit two and walked four. Sanders sent an even dozen Potters to the dugout via the whiff route.

Peaches Damaged By Tarnish Bugs

Visits to Mahoning county peach orchards by C. S. Holland, horticultural specialist and J. C. Hedge, county agent showed many deformed peaches. T. H. Parks, extension entomologist is of the opinion that these deformed peaches are the result of the work of the tarnish bug.

Proper cultivation is the way to prevent damage from this insect. The season kept many orchardmen cultivating their orchards rather late, and as a result they had an opportunity to do considerable damage.

SOVIET STAND GAINING FAVOR

Campaign for Recognition
By United States
Started

Washington, July 20.—A new campaign for American recognition of the Soviet republic will be started in congress as the result of the action of Russia in indicating her intention to abide by the Kellogg-Brand peace pact and the state department's appeal to both Russia and China to maintain peace in the far east, it was predicted today.

Friends of Russian recognition celebrated the latest developments in the China-Russian controversy as a forerunner of recognition while bitter opponents of the Bolshevik government admitted that the recognition move has received a powerful impetus.

Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, and leader in the fight for recognition of diplomatic relations with Russia, enthusiastically praised Russia's reported stand and indicated a belief that the Bolshevik government will gain a new standing throughout the world.

One of the senate's leading opponents of Russian recognition in the past—Senator William H. King, of Utah, frankly declared that the Russian stand will aid the movement for recognition not only in the United States but in other countries.

Bremen Is Speeding Towards Port

London, July 20.—There is an excellent chance of the new German motor liner, Bremen making a trans-Atlantic speed record for the run from Cherbourg to New York, according to radiograms from the ship today.

The liner has been averaging 27 knots an hour against strong winds, but better weather is expected during the next day or two. Fifty hours out from Cherbourg the Bremen had traveled nearly 1,500 miles.

The Bremen is due to dock at New York some time Monday afternoon.

FIRE DESTROYS PLAN BUILDING

Damage to Sandusky Company Will Exceed $50,000; Investigate
Origin of Blaze

Sandusky, O., July 20.—Fire broke out in the three-story brick plant of the defunct Michel Cooperage Co. here early today, virtually destroying the structure and causing damage estimated at more than $50,000.

The building had recently been equipped for occupancy within the next few days by the Steel Blanking Co., a Cleveland concern.

The fire defied all efforts of the Sandusky fire department to bring it under control. Chief John D.
Curtis of Sandusky, and Deputy State Fire Marshal J. A. Wormwood of Fremont, started an investigation immediately to determine the origin of the blaze.

The building was regarded as a landmark here. During the days when fish were plentiful and wine-making and beer-brewing legal, the Michel company did an enormous business. For many years it was one of Sandusky's foremost industrial concerns.

SALESMAN DIES IN AUTO CRASH

Motorist Found Beside Machine In Unconscious Condition; Death
Follows In Hospital

New Philadelphia, O., July 20.—A man, believed to be H. L. Townsend, 35, of Columbus, a representative of the Broadhead Cheese and Cold Storage company of Broadhead, Wis., was found unconscious along the Coshocton-Uhrichville road here Friday beside a small overturned roadster.

He died a few hours later in Twin City hospital here without regaining consciousness.

The license plates on the car had been issued to Gladys Helen Townsend, of Dearborn drive, Columbus.

A card in the man's pocket also bore a Chicago address, 5052 West Kinzie st.

Definite identification of the men has not been completed.

MOVIES

Next Week's Features

"Stark Mad," a grotesque feature, with dialogue and musical synchronization effects, comes to the State, and "My Lady's Past" will be at the Royal next week, as the outstanding motion picture events of the period.

Belle Bennett, Alma Bennett, and Joe E. Brown are cast in starring roles in "My Lady's Past," a picture its romance about a broken matrimonial engagement. Mamie Reynolds has been the victim of one of the well known long engagements, and it sends just about the same as the general run of such affairs do—in unhappiness for both parties involved.

She has waited ten years for her future to gain success in writing, while she works as the brainless little typist who produces the manuscript for the mail. Mamie is about to be wedded to another, though when Sam comes to life, and starts the traditional fictional climax by stealing the prospective bride at the altar.

Tonight's Programs
Closing this week's theater engagements at the Royal is "The Shakedown," a story of the boxing ring, starring James Murray and Barbara Kent. At the State is "High Voltage," an all-talking production featuring William Boyd.

Here are the facts that prove it America's fine

medium-priced automobile

Below are typical examples of facts drawn from a comparison of the Oakland All-American Six with 20 leading cars in its field. Study these facts—then come to our showroom for additional information. We can give you dozens of other comparisons as further proof of Oakland's unrivaled value. And these are facts which prove the Oakland All-American to be America's finest medium-priced automobile.

What these features mean to you

Large piston displacement is needed to develop high power at moderate engine speed.
Moderate engine speed is an important factor in the life of a car.

No name in automobile coach building means so much as Fisher. Fisher bodies are famous for style,
luxury and roominess.
In addition, they hold such advantages as sturdy composite hardwood and steel construction, VV windshield, side cow ventilation and adjustable drivers' seats.

Reasonably long wheelbase gives greater riding ease and road balance. Also permits use of longer, smarter, roomier bodies. At the same time, a small turning circle is essential to handling ease.

For safety, efficiency, convenience, smoothness and silence nothing has been found to compare with internal expanding mechanical 4-wheel service brakes with non-squeak bands. An entirely separate emergency braking system is needed as an extra safety factor.

Oakland All-American Six, $1145 to $1375, f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Spring covers and Lorraine Hydraulic Shock Absorbers included in list prices. Bumpers and rear fender guards extra. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list price when comparing automobile values. . . . Oakland Pontiac delivered prices include only reasonable charges for handling and for financing when the G. M. A. C. Time Payment Plan is used.
